Olympic Soccer And Sports Center To Host “PumasWinterStravaganza!” Nov. 21st

Bremerton, Wash. – The Olympic Soccer and Sports Center, located at Pendergast Park in Bremerton will host the first-ever “PumasWinterStravaganza!” Saturday, November 21, 2009. This a FREE event, open to all children and will run from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. inside the center.

The event will feature the professional Kitsap Pumas players and coaches running training sessions, a jamboree, meet-and-greet opportunities, soccer aerobics, SAQ, and skills sessions/contests. The event will also include:

- Sign-up for the center’s winter indoor season and be entered to win official Pumas merchandise – including t-shirts for your whole team - taking place every 30 minutes (must be present to win)!
- Bring a toy to contribute to our annual Toys For Tots drive!
- Face painting!
- Free cake courtesy of Silverdale Costco!
- Prizes and raffles every thirty minutes (must be present to win)!
- A visit from “Puma Klaus,” including FREE photos courtesy of Windermere Real Estate and Mike Bay!
- On-going, hourly specials on concessions!
- A Pumas “one-day only” team store featuring blowout prices on official 2009 Inaugural-Season team merchandise – GREAT for Christmas gifts and stocking stuffers!
- On-site 2010 Pumas season ticket sales. (Adults: Buy now and receive a FREE, official Pumas team scarf – plus - Kids’ SEASON passes for ONLY $25!!!)

For more information, please contact Kitsap Soccer Club headquarters (360-377-6008) or the Olympic Soccer and Sports Center (360-479-8388).
